

Pine Mountain State Resort Park's
HAWKTOBERFEST

Featuring Live Birds of Prey!

October 1-3, 2010

Fall Fun in the Mountains!

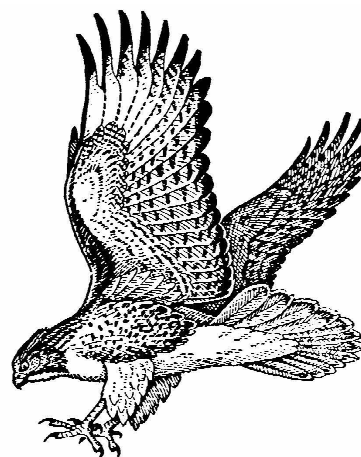

Something is in the air on this great getaway weekend co-sponsored by Pine Mountain State Resort Park, Cumberland Gap National Historical Park, and the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources! Immerse yourself in the changing array of fall foliage and watchable wildlife during the peak of autumn raptor migration.

The weekend features a wide variety of whole-family activities, programs, and presentations offered concurrently at both Pine Mountain State Resort Park and Cumberland Gap National Historical Park (just 12 miles south) and participation in all activities and programs at both parks is free.

Offerings will include observation techniques, raptor identification, morning birding walks, live birds of prey shows, a guided hawk watch from atop lofty Pinnacle Overlook, children's activities and much more. Don't miss this opportunity for fall fun in the mountains!

Pine Mountain State Resort Park, regarded among the finest natural resorts in the southeastern US, is noted for its rugged mountain terrain and scenic beauty. Pine Mountain features 30 lodge rooms overlooking the Kentucky Ridge State Forest, as well as an assortment of two-bedroom cottages and log cabins nestled in forested settings. The park also boasts fine dining, an envious assortment of hiking trails and an 18-hole golf course.

For more event or facility information, contact the park's Guest Services Desk at (800) 325-1712 or (606) 337-3066.
